The Grand Commandery of
Knights Templar of Pennsylvania

Prayer of Invocation

Associate Grand Prelate

Almighty and everlasting God, in whom we live and move and have our being, you created us for yourself, so that our hearts are restless until they find rest in you. Grant to us such piety of heart and strength of purpose that no selfish passion may hinder us from knowing your will, and no weakness from doing it. In your light may we see life clearly and, in your service, find perfect freedom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Responsive Call to Worship

Associate Grand Prelate

Consider the great saints of the church: The greatest are those who gave themselves to serve others.

Jesus did not come to be served, but to serve. He is the example for all Christians.

Many Christians have great qualities. But true greatness is achieved only in self-sacrifice for the sake of others.

The church is Christ's servant in the world today. We pray that our sacrifice will make it great.

Memorial Prayer and The Lord’s Prayer

(debtors / debtors)

Almighty God, before whom stand the living and the dead, we your children, whose mortal life is but a hand’s breadth, give thanks to you for all those through whom you have blessed our pilgrimage, whose lives have empowered us, and whose influence is a healing grace. We thank you, O God, for those who have sacrificed themselves, our brothers and sisters, who have given their lives for the sake of others. May we continually hold them with remembrance in our hearts and ever think of them as with you in that city whose gates are not shut by day and where there is no night. We pray this through the holy name of Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray by saying, “Our Father. . . .”

Give thanks to the Lord, who is good.

God's love is everlasting.

Come, let us praise God.

Let us come to God with thanksgiving.

For the good world; for things great and small, beautiful, and awesome; for seen and unseen splendor.

Thank you, God.

For human life; for talking and moving and thinking together; for common hopes and hardships shared from birth until our dying.

Thank you, God.

For work to do and strength to work; for the companionship of labor; for exchanges of good humor and encouragement.

Thank you, God.

For your help in times of doubt and sorrow; for healing and hurts; for preserving us in temptation and danger.

Thank you, God.

For those who have gone before us; for their contributions to our lives and to our communities and commanderies; for the memories we hold dear.

Thank you, God.

For those who have guided our steps with wisdom; for those who have opened our eyes to the truth; for those who have strengthened our wills by their encouragement.

Thank you, God.

With reverence and affection, we remember before you, O everlasting God, all our departed loved ones, friends, colleagues and fraters.

Thank you, God.

Keep us in union with them, through faith and love toward you, that hereafter we may join them in your presence and be numbered with those who serve you, O God of everlasting love,

Amen.
